Order for Judicial Settlement Conference

It appearing to the Court that a settlement conference might be beneficial toward resolution of the issues in this case, IT IS ORDERED that the parties participate in a judicial settlement conference. The attorneys for the parties are ordered to contact Circuit Judge Caroline Knight, Circuit Court Judge William Ridley or a private mediator for settlement dates within 60 days. In order to assist the parties and the settlement judge in preparing for the mediation, the following guidelines will be adhered to:

1. Good faith offers will have been exchanged by the parties.
2. A face to face negotiation session must have been held between the lawyers.
3. A full exchange of pertinent information necessary to evaluate the claim must have taken place. This full exchange shall include all medical reports, all medical bills, copies of all photographs intended to be used at trial, reports from economists or reconstruction experts, etc.
4. In accordance with Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 31, all information gained by the mediator during the conference will be held confidential.
